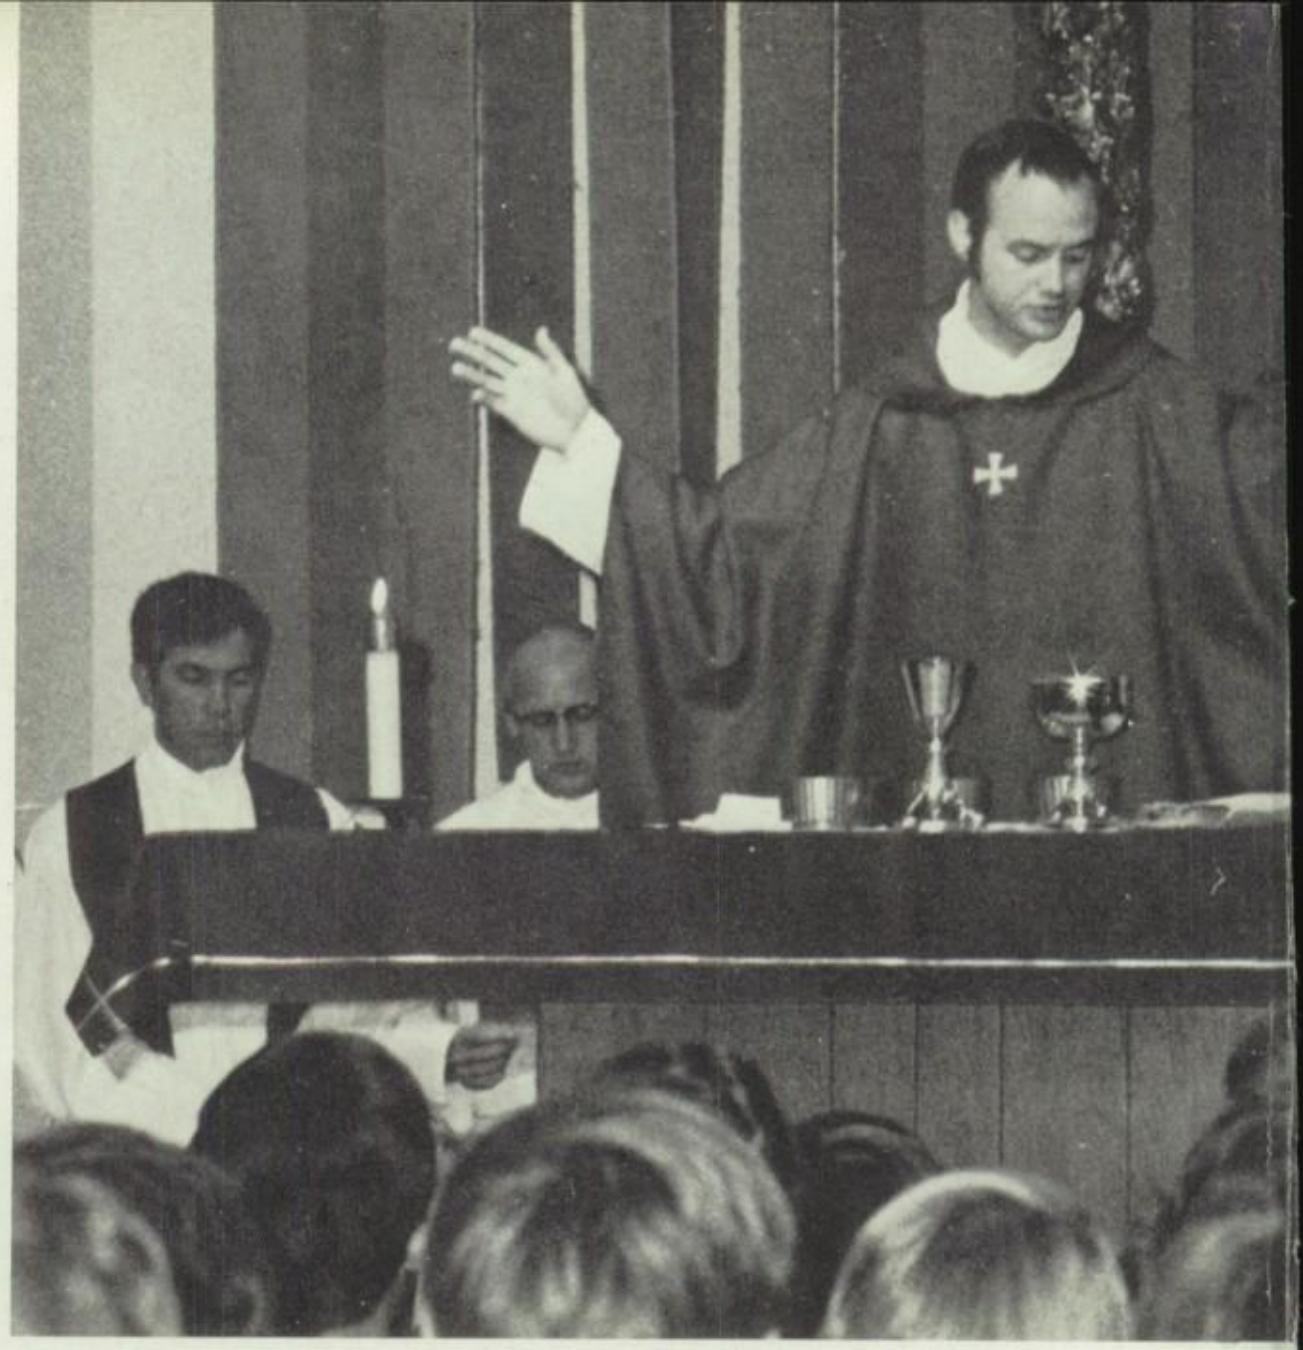
GEORGE H. and

ANNA F. BACKER MEMORIAL



SANBORN
CONCRETE CONTRACTORS

The community of St. Louis U. High is a mirror of life. As all men, we are striving to become truly human. But we are driven by a further ideal: to become truly Christian. As the rest of men, we will test our limitations in fulfilling our ideals in this place and at this time. So, from September to June, by working and sharing together, we will have brought to reality our Ideal insofar as grace and talents will allow.

Your Own Thing was the first theatrical success of the year. It was also the first multi-media production at SLUH. The music (by Hester and Apolinar) was especially distinctive under the direction of Mr. Frank Gold S.J. and Dan Mertens. The play was directed by Mr. F. Joseph Schulte assisted by Mr. John Craig, S.J.

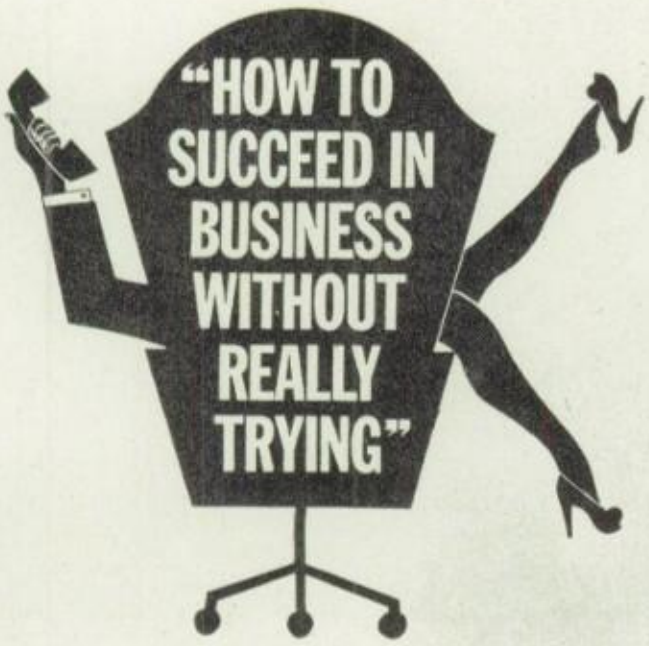
ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL

PRESENT



1

In a joint Spring production, Ursuline Academy and SLUH presented How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. The fast-moving musical was enhanced by the singing and acting talents of seasoned actors Tom Gassner, Rich Mankus, and of Tim Leahy, Mike McInnis, and Terry Krobot. Dancing was choreographed by John Craig, S.J. and Tracy Vonder Haar. The chorus was directed by Sr. Judith Ann, with the band under the direction of Fr. Renner. Mr. Schulte was the director.

1. Gwen Clegg as Rosemary, the secretary who marries Finch, the main character.
2. Part of the chorus admire Carol Thompson as Hedy LaRue.
3. Rich Mankus, Bud Frump, the boss's nephew, sings for coffee in the office.
4. The orchestra tunes up before rehearsal.

Band

This year's Concert Band saw several changes: a new director, Fr. Ralph Renner, S.J.; institution of academic credit for band members and a program of private lessons with professional musicians; conversion of the band room into a combination rehearsal hall, classroom, and recording studio with the latest in stereo equipment; establishment of new student positions—a technical director (John Farrell), assistant conductors (Dan Mertens and John Lumetta), and recording engineers (Perry Joseph, Lou Schuler, and Mike Reape).

The Concert Band gave five concerts and performed at Commencement. Throughout the year band members staffed and directed brass choirs, rock groups, and a full orchestra for the different musical shows. The band closed its season with a Senior Concert, featuring senior soloists and Senior Follies accompanists, Matt Dreifke and Gloria McCarthy.

Prep News

Under the advisorship of Fr. Deeman, the PREP NEWS continued its new-formed tradition of weekly publication in mimeographed form with an occasional appearance as a "magazine." (An especially notable example of the latter was the issue devoted to the Library.) And during its tenure the staff, headed by senior Dan Joyce, continued to make improvements in layout, creativity, organization, and variety of articles. Moreover the staff, composed of students from all four years, was the largest and most representative in recent years.

The class of '72 wanted to have a yearbook that would tell the story of the entire year in sight and sound. The staff of the DAUPHIN hopes that this book and the soundsheet do so in a way which is truly reflective of what took place this year at SLUH.

We also wish to thank Mr. Keefe for being our adviser this year and to congratulate him on the completion of the first of many yearbooks under his direction.

This has been the most successful year in recent Bellarmine Club history. At tournaments individuals consistently placed high. Outstanding were Cole, Dierkes, Clayton, and Gatterer. The team won first place at two major tournaments.

In league competition the Bellarmine Club took first in the Catholic Interscholastic League and second in the Greater St. Louis Speech and Debate League.

The team of Quinley-Ebel led the club in debate with over 50 wins. The highlight of the year was a third place finish at the state meet by the team of Forti-Granich. Contributing to the success in debate were the teams of Polasek-Lawder and Wimmer-Malcic.

The Astronomy Club undertook several projects this year. At the bi-weekly meetings, astronomy articles were discussed and films from NASA were viewed. A major activity of some members was mirror grinding for their own versions of the club's 6-inch reflecting telescopes. The club also held several observation sessions, especially one of the January lunar eclipse, a major event in the club's year.

Chess Team

This year's team, coached by Mr. Amelotti, made up of Aykent (4), Curran (4), Malon (4), and Stapp (2), enjoyed one of its most successful and active seasons in recent memory.

SLUH placed a close third in the Alton Invitational and won the Ritenour Tourney. In the first St. Louis Junior Championship, hosted by SLUH, Curran and Stapp placed 2nd and 3rd respectively. In the St. Louis Chess League, Aykent was named the best player and malon amassed the greatest number of wins. The team's overall record was 7-1. To culminate the season, SLUH sent 6 representatives to the National Championship in New York in April.

Upward Bound

This year, in addition to the Saturday morning tutoring sessions, the SLUH Upward Bound Program added new dimensions to its activities by concluding a five-week Summer Learning Camp. Attending the camp were thirty-two grade-school boys. Headed by Father McKenzie and Mr. Kramer, the camp provided a rural setting for learning and facilities for boarding and recreation. This included classrooms, athletic fields, a gym, and a huge swimming pool. The summer program's success was due greatly to the efforts of seniors Bob DeVoto, Walter Griffin, Thom Digman, Michael Williams, and Chris Reid ('71). Plans are to make this camp an annual opportunity.

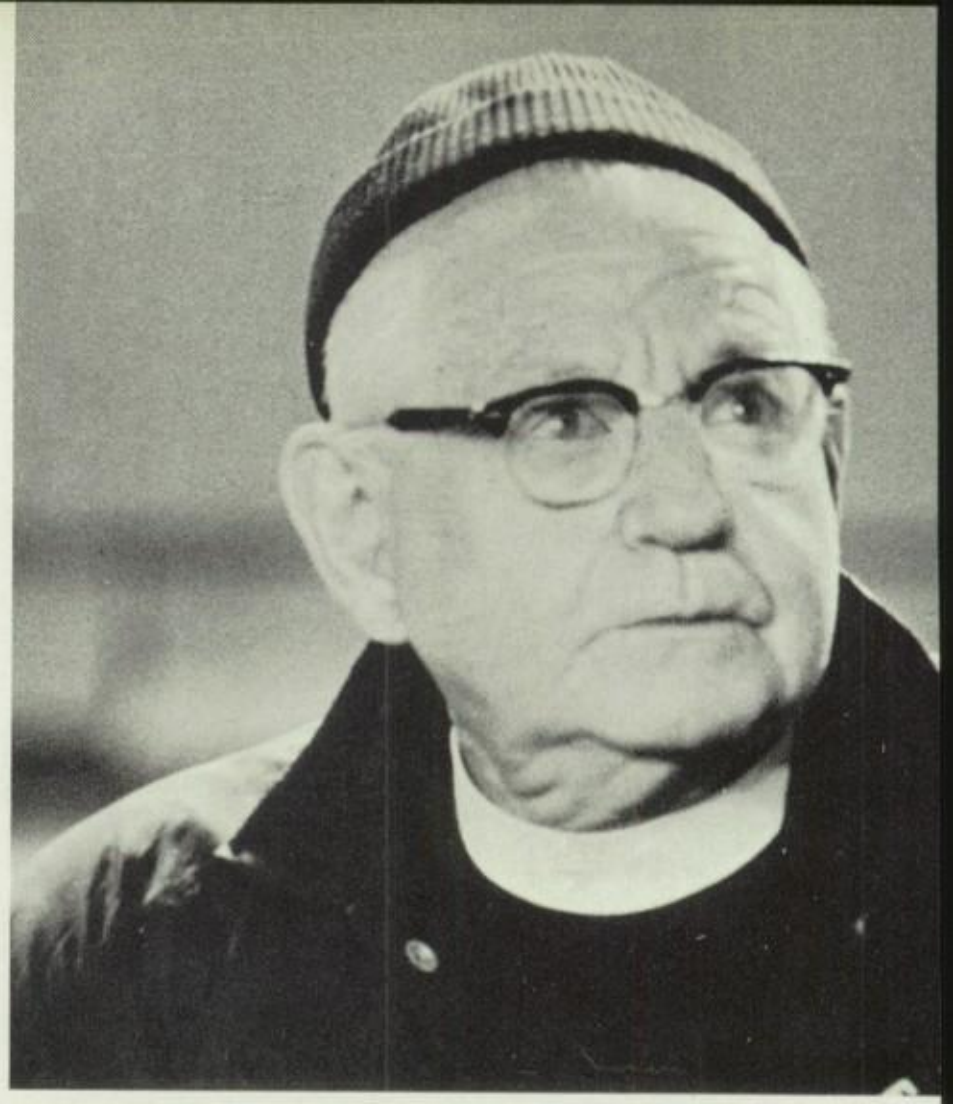
ATHLETICS

Gridders Lose 2 by 1



There are four ingredients in the making of a champion: pride, determination, skill, and confidence. Because of our team's lack of size, there was a somewhat general consensus that this season would be only a "fair" one for a U. High football team.

The team had different ideas, however. An intense determination to excel augmented by a certain pride of togetherness, combined with the skills that we possessed, produced a season which we shall always remember. Up against teams of superior size, it was sheer determination and confidence that kept us going. We had setbacks both as a team and as individuals, but we always seemed to bounce back. There was a certain love among the team members that helped each individual to do his best. These were teammates who needed each other.

At the close of the season it was safe to say that this was a team that had the makings of a champion.

Tony Behr, Tri-Captain.

Steve Ohmer, Tri-Captain

The Junior Bills play a type of football that everyone is able to recognize immediately—the kind of football taught by Paul Martel and Ebbie Dunn and backed by a matchless spirit. And it is amazing. It is a kind of football that requires grass drills without grass, but develops winners regardless of victory or defeat in score.

Mark Clark, Tri-Captain

The varsity football team opened its season against Northwest. After a slow start, the team exploded in the second half to run away with its first victory, 41-12.

The second game matched the Junior Bills and the McCluer Comets. Out to revenge three consecutive losses, SLUH established a 32-0 lead by half time. McCluer then took advantage of SLUH mistakes to score three touchdowns. The final outcome, however, was in favor of the Junior Bills, 39-20.

The third week of the season saw the Junior Bills defeat Assumption 50-6 at O'Fallon Field.

The fourth game, played in Columbia, pitted the Junior Bills against a determined Hickman ball club. The Junior Bills' scores came on two field goals and an end zone fumble. But the Hickman offense proved to be more potent as it handed the Junior Bills their first loss, 14-13.

The following week the Junior Bills opposed the Comanches of Cahokia. The final score was 32-16.

In the sixth game the Junior Bills faced DeSmet. The first half was a strenuous struggle, resulting in a Spartan lead of 7-0. In the second half the Junior Bills took a 13-7 lead with consecutive scores. However, a DeSmet score in the final minutes put the Junior Bills again on the losing end of a 14-13 struggle.

On Friday night, November 5, the Junior Bills made their annual trip to Busch Stadium. The Junior Bills' offense took immediate control, scoring twice in the first quarter. Throughout the game the defensive unit frustrated the Cadets' offense. This gave the Junior Bills their only shutout, 24-0.

The final game matched SLUH against the formidable Riverview Rams. Both the Junior Bill offense and defense played to their potential by stunning the Rams 28-14.

The B football team had an outstanding year based on the strong determination of the entire squad. Every man on the team contributed. With injuries affecting eighteen players throughout the season, those who were reserves came in as starters and helped carry the team to a successful 6-2-1 season. They fought for the co-championship of the Bi-State Conference, achieving a 4-0-1 league record. Field goals by Cosgrove, the passing and running of Miller, the blocking and tackling of Kelso, highlighted the '71 season. Many individuals played key roles. Among those who excelled at the right time were Burns, Dicus, Matecki, Neill, Keeley, Mueller, and Llewellyn.

Cees Capture Bi-State Crown

The C football team completed a successful year by winning five of six games played. The defense was largely responsible for the success of the team. Only one opponent succeeded in scoring more than one touchdown.

The mainstays of the defensive line were Tom Ryan, Brown, Heagney, and Frayne. The outstanding linebackers were Rosenauer, Chura, and Hanneke. The deep secondary consisted of Meyer, Behr, and Redel. On offense the team was led by quarterbacks Hanneke and Meyer. The leading ball carriers were Chura, Behr, Rosenauer, and Redel. The leading pass receivers were Lewis and Tom Ryan.

Cagers Finish Near Top

An inexperienced Junior-Bill basketball team started the season by losing three of its first four games, but showed steady improvement by posting a 15-12 record for the year.

The Bills were a surprise second-place winner in the Normandy Tournament, losing to highly ranked Kirkwood in the final. In the DuBourg Tournament the Bills took third place with wins over Vianney and Southwest. In the Bi-State Conference Coach Hanick's team won its last four games to tie for second place with six wins and four losses.

Highlights of the season were the three victories over CBC (2 by 1 point) and an unbelievable come-from-behind win over Vashon in the first round of regional play.

Team spirit and a balanced attack were trademarks of the team throughout the season. All five starters: Dohr, Moore, DeCaro, Krieger, and Grider alternated as high scorers, with junior Dan Miller and freshman Kent Miller showing promise for the future.

The factors in the freshmen's success were: teamwork as seen by its average of 52 points per game; a defense which allowed the opposition only 35 points per game; a strong bench which contributed playing time and a spirit that helped produce a winning attitude; a team loaded with talent.

Kickers Nearly Capture State Title

SLUH soccer in 71-72 was both a joy and a disappointment. The Bills advanced to the State Semi-finals where they were upset by McCluer. Ranked No. 1 all year, the Billikens won the annual CYC Christmas Tournament for the first time in 17 years, the DuBourg tournament for the second time in a row, and the District by defeating CBC 3-0. Other highlights were beating CBC 3 out of 4 times and the placement of eight players on the All-League team: Leo Asaro, Tim Twellmean, Steve Cacciatore, Neil Flynn, Steve Ohmer, Tim Conway (Capt.), Jim Tierney, and Mike Smallwood (Capt.). Five players received All-State Honors: Steve Cacciatore, Tim Conway, Jim Tierney, Neil Flynn, and Mike Smallwood. In compiling their 23-4-2 record, the Jr. Bills scored 68 goals while allowing only 12. Tony Giamanco had 19 shutouts and Leo Asaro was leading scorer with 20 goals.

Grapplers Take Bi-State Crown

This year's varsity wrestling team brought back many new honors to SLUH. Among these was the first Bi-State Tournament Crown. Led by Coach Murphy, the team collected many individual and team awards. The outstanding individual award went to Senior Bill Drury who finished second in the State Tournament in the 185-lb. class. Outstanding seasons were also turned in by seniors Chris McCarthy and Dave Raack and by juniors Dave Welsch, Mike Gowen and Rich Falk.

Riflers Among Top in Nation

For the first time in seven years the rifle team traveled out of town to participate in inter-state and national tournaments. At the Kemper National Sectional Tournament on Feb. 20 the team shot a 1522/1600; this placed it among the top five teams in the nation. The squad showed its depth at the Piasa Tournament with three juniors registering high scores. The team placed third out of 31 teams at the Camp Perry Invitational, the nation's largest indoor tournament.

With a 5-2 record, second place in the city league was easily clinched. The team is now looking forward to next season with 4 lettermen returning along with many potential shooters.

Swimmers Have Successful Year

The swimming team, coached again this year by Mr. Przybylski, S.J., had a noteworthy season. An overall team effort was responsible for the 7-4 record. Freshman Tom Molina took a 2nd in the 400-yd. freestyle in the District swim meet, and captured a 4th and 2nd in state competition. Sophomore Pete Kinsella, after a 2nd and 6th in District, earned a 3rd in the 100-yd. freestyle and a 12th in the 50-yd. freestyle at the State meet. Senior Larry Molina was able to pull out a 4th at District and a 9th at State in the 200-yd. individual medley. The squad finished 6th in District and 10th in State.

Tankmen Weather Rough Waters

Coach Busenhart returned for the '71 season after a two years' absence. Expectations were high for the campaign, but as the season progressed, hopes for a district title became shelved. Returning lettermen were seniors Krebs, Larry Molina, and Wilhelm. Among the junior starters Luetkemeyer deserved the most recognition. The 4-8 season record will surely be improved upon next year by a number of returning players and by members of a star-studded B team.

The B team's 5-8 record was no indication of the squad's overall strength. It was among the fastest in the area. Standouts were Kinsells, Tom Molina, and McDonnell.

Cindermen Stride Toward Perfection

The SLUH striders guided by Coaches Calacci and Burshek and led by tri-captains Tom Calacci, Mark Clark, and Jim Tierney tallied a winning record in the '72 season. The team had talent and spirit but was lacking in numbers. Each member competed regularly in three events. Our losses to Lindbergh and Hazelwood were due largely to the size of our team. Outstanding in three events were Mark Meredith, Dave Mossinghoff, Frank Nowicki, and Bill Wendel. As a result the team lost only two dual meets. Our loss of the Bi-State title was to DeSmet by one-fourth of a point. The team placed fifth of sixteen teams in District.

The 1972 baseball team suffered through a frustrating season from the opening game (a 2-1 loss to CBC in eight innings) to the regional loss (2-0) against DeSmet.

The team had many question marks entering the season. The pitching lacked a third and fourth starter to follow up senior Matt Walsh and junior Jim Walther. The outfield, except for a strong right fielder in Steve Shores, was the team's biggest question. The infield, rated by many as one of the area's best, included Jim Dohr (All-Metro) at first base, Tim Twellman at second base, Steve Hinderberger at shortstop, and Steve Ohmer at third base. Junior Rick Krieger turned in an outstanding season behind the plate. Yet through the entire campaign the team seemed never to be able to get on the right track. The talent was there, but we could not put it all together. There was always something lacking.

Golfers up to Par

The golf team made another strong showing this year losing only two of its fourteen regularly scheduled matches. This allowed SLUH to take the Bi-State title away from CBC. And in the District Tournament the team placed sixth out of thirty-six entries. Among the outstanding players were Mark Keeley ('74), Ed Downey ('73), and seniors Vic Jost and Jerry Meyer. These four went to Columbia to play in the State Finals.

TEAM MEMBERS: Berron (2), Burton (2), Burton (3), Downey (3), Downey (4), Fournie (4), Hoffman (4), Jost (4), Keeley (2), Meyer (4), Schmitz (4), Strebeck (3), Sullivan (4), Weber (4). COACH: Fr. Louis Mattione, S.J.

New Team Offers Surprises

The SLUH Club Hockey Team, pre-season pick as doormat of the league, surprised everyone by finishing third, one point out of a playoff spot, with a record of 5 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. After an impressive start with a five-game unbeaten string, the team tailed-off, missing the playoffs on the final day of the season. The tri-coaches of the team were Messrs. Amelotti, Busenhart, and Murphy.

The 18 members of our bowling team made up 3 squads. The final league standings proved their competence. The first place position of team No. 1 was solidified by a 13-game winning streak in mid-season. The record of the No. 2 team was less distinctive due to a poor start. An 11-game winning streak was the major factor contributing to the good showing of team No. 3.

Senior Project II

For the second consecutive year SLUH conducted a program of social service and involvement for all the seniors. It was for a three-week period in January and February and had as its purpose to allow the seniors to experience a different social milieu and to come to a realization of the great need for their talents and Christian love in the world.

During the "Project", the seniors were released from their classes to work as volunteers in areas of involvement which they had chosen: hospitals and mental institutions, tutoring in inner-city grade schools, working with the handicapped, and even working on Jesuit-affiliated Indian reservations in Wyoming, Texas, and Canada.

The seniors found their experiences very rewarding. They learned much about the value of kindness, consideration, and active concern for the disadvantaged. A number of the class continued to work at their project jobs during the weekends and after school

Chris Fleischut

The Senior Project is designed to give the St. Louis University High School senior the opportunity to experience in a direct way many of the so-called facts that he is confronted with daily in school. For example, some students do not always realize the great gifts they have in mental ability, personality, and physical health. To give them first-hand experience in dealing with people who do not have these gifts enables the student to appreciate in a greater way the benefits he has and at the same time to seek out, on a practical basis, ways to use his great amount of ability to help someone else who does not possess his talents. More importantly, the Senior Project can give some an opportunity to put their Christian principles into action by confronting the problems of evil in our surroundings with the fundamental Christian virtues of love, generosity, patience, and perseverance. We pray for these in our daily liturgy, but we do not always see the possibilities of their practical application during our school day and as an incentive in our school activities. Out of all this it is hoped that the graduating senior experiences how important he can be to someone else and thus be motivated in an even deeper way to follow energetically the call of Christ in "that whatever you do for these the least of my brethren, you do unto Me."
